

1- LOCATION

El Vendrell is the chief town of Baix Penedès on the east coast of Catalonia, The Golden Coast, in the north of Tarragona, Spain.

It is situated in a short distance away, slightly inland. It's got two seaside districts: Coma-ruga and Sant Salvador.

The countryside is flat, but there are small mountains with Mediterranean vegetation. There are lots of almonds and olive trees and vineyards remembering that its principal activity was agriculture for many centuries. At the moment the main industries are: trade, tourism and agriculture.

2- THE WEATHER

The weather is usually sunny and warm. In Autumn and Winter it is cool, there are windy days, but the temperature is soft. In Spring and Summer the sun shines every day and at the beaches there are lots of tourists sunbathing and swimming in the Mediterranean sea.
